

ONE-MONTH INTENSIVE COURSE IN THEOLOGY OF CONSECRATED LIFE

Duration : 1 month (2025 April 30 [Wednesday evening] to May 30 [Friday afternoon]).

Eligibility : Open to any professed religious, priests, laity.

Medium of Instruction : English

Course Features:

This is a condensed form of the one-year diploma course on the theology of consecrated life (TCL). It is offered as an alternative for those who are unable to spare a whole year for renewal programs or specifically for studying TCL. This course is ideal for those desiring a deeper reflection and renewed theological understanding of consecrated life, a brief renewal experience, jubilarians, and those preparing for final profession.

Learning Outcomes

Having participated actively in this course, the participants will have:

- Explored the theory and dynamics of the theology of consecrated life enabling them to deepen their convictions and commitment.
- Identified and developed skills and tools to live their consecration authentically.
- Learned fundamental principles of consecrate life from biblical, historical, spiritual, psychological, theological, dogmatic, missionary, formative, and evangelical perspectives.
- Had a lived and shared inter-cultural experience of being part of a learning community of missionaries who engage in collaborative learning and reflection.
