COURSE RATIONALE & OBJECTIVES:

The Church has called upon all her constituents to make protection of minors and vulnerable adults an urgent priority in ministry. In response to this call, ICLS has been offering this course since 2019. The course targets those in the ministry of children and vulnerable adults, especially teachers and formators, to be informed and equipped to protect and empower children and vulnerable adults. The course focuses on the following objectives:

- To create a world where minors and vulnerable persons are safer.
- To raise awareness and provide formation for the prevention of child sexual abuse.
- To train to help victims overcome the trauma of childhood sexual abuse.
- To promote preventive measures in various ministries.
- To deepen knowledge of the Church and State Laws (such as POCSO Act).
