CONSECRATED LIFE

100 HOURS | 20 CREDITS | JULY-DECEMBER 2024
SATURDAYS & SUNDAYS | 6.00 - 8.00 P.M. IST

The Church treasures consecrated life as “a gift of God the Father to his Church through the Holy Spirit” (Vita Consecrata 1) and places it “at the very heart of the Church as a decisive element for her mission” (VC, 3). She calls it a “ray of divine beauty” (VC 109) and “a spiritual therapy” for humanity (VC 87). Hence, learning the theology of consecrated life is sine qua non for those living it, for diocesan clergy who work with the consecrated, and for the lay faithful with a keen interest in a life of consecration. ICLS offers licentiate and diploma in theology of consecrated life. However, for those who are unable to attend the residential programs, we offer this unique, 6-month-long, weekend online course on the essentials of consecrated life.
