INSTITUTE OF CONSECRATED LIFE SANYASA (ICLS)

2026
2027

BENGALURU, INDIA

Incorporated to the Faculty of Theology,
Pontifical Lateran University, Rome

ICLS: A Claretian Missionary Initiative
at the Service of Consecrated Men and Women

ST. ANTHONY MARY CLARET PATRON

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY HEAVENLY DIRECTOR

BL. CLARETIAN MARTYRS OF BARBASTRO GUARDIANS

Claretian Missionaries are committed to the cause of consecrated life in the Church and in the world. To this effect, Claretians have founded six institutes of consecrated life (Claretianum in Rome, ITVR in Madrid, ICLA in Manila, ICLS in Bengaluru, INCLA in Abuja [Nigeria], and ITVCA in Bogotá [Colombia]), with the specific mission of renewal and revisioning of consecrated life and ongoing formation and upskilling of the consecrated.

ICLS, founded in 2002 at Carmelaram, Bengaluru, India, as the fourth of the Claretian institutes of consecrated life, is the one and only such institute in South Asia, offering licentiate (under the Faculty of Theology, Pontifical Lateran University, Rome) and diploma in the theology of consecrated life and several short, intensive, online and offline courses for the upskilling of the consecrated. Contextualizing consecrated life in the Asian setting, ICLS offers various academic and ongoing formation programs for deepening the understanding of the consecrated form of life in the Church especially in the light of the Scripture, the Magisterium, the Tradition, and various theological interpretations with the scope of empowering consecrated persons.

ICLS VISION

Be a premier institute for the renewal and revisioning of consecrated life in the Church with a special focus on South Asia, by offering specialized studies in the theology of consecrated life and diverse short- and long-term offline and online courses for the upskilling of the consecrated, in shared mission with those committed to the cause of consecrated life.

ICLS MISSION

To facilitate study, reflection, and research in the theology and formation of consecrated life in its biblical, historical, theological, and anthropological dimensions, clarifying its identity and mission in the Church and the world, in dialogue with other Christian forms of life and the pluriform religious faith traditions of Asia, and living out the experience within an inter-congregational ambience and missionary spirituality.

CONTEMPLATING WITH THE CELLULOID

A Five-Day Spiritual Retreat with Select Movies

At its very best, the medium of cinema is singularly capable of evoking deepest spiritual sensibilities of the human soul, making her confront truth in its beauty and terror, and leaving her transformed. ICLS offers you a unique and novel opportunity to do your annual retreat meditating through the glimpses of truth, beauty, and goodness that some perennial classic films offer. Each day, the participants watch a select movie and reflect on its theological-spiritual insinuations in relation to one's Christian and religious calling.

Last Date to Apply : June 10, 2026

How to Apply : See the Application Form on page 13

Or, via Google Form: <https://forms.gle/sQ42mJx9haEtBzGc6>

Course Description

FATP introduces the participants to the theory and practice of formative processes, utilizing advanced learning methods, contributions of andragogy, and transformative learning, together with the insights from 2,000 years of spiritual patrimony of the Church.

The course primarily draws on the Six Category Intervention Approaches as developed by John Heron, and is further integrated with scriptural insights and principles of consecrated life, counselling skills, rules of discernment, community dynamics, etc., aimed at preparing skilled and effective formators.

Learning Outcomes of FATP

Having participated actively in this course, the formation personnel will have:

- Explored the theory and practice of accompaniment in formation ministry to be better equipped to work in initial and ongoing formation.
- Identified, practiced, and developed skills and tools for formative accompaniment.
- Learned various intervention models to assist candidates in different moments in their formative journey.
- Had a lived experience of being part of a learning community of formation personnel who engage in collaborative learning and reflection.
- Initiated preliminary steps for creating peer support groups which could evolve into ongoing support network of formation personnel.

SAFEGUARDING MINORS AND VULNERABLE ADULTS

Duration	: One week (2026 November 15 -21) [Sunday evening to Saturday noon]
Eligibility	: Priests, religious, and laity working directly with minors and vulnerable adults. Highly recommended for teachers, youth leaders, and formators.
Medium of Instruction	: English
Course Fees	: See the "Fee Structure" on page 12
Last Date to Apply	: October 20, 2026
How to Apply	: See the Application Form on page 13 Or, via Google Form: https://forms.gle/rXX9qN1VK6SMYB3NA

Course Description & Objectives:

The Church has called upon all her constituents to make protection of minors and vulnerable adults an urgent priority in ministry. In response to this call, ICLS has been offering this course since 2019. The course targets those in the ministry of children and vulnerable adults, especially teachers and formators, to be informed and equipped to protect and empower children and vulnerable adults. The course has the following objectives:

- To create a world where minors and vulnerable persons are safer.
- To raise awareness and provide formation for prevention of child sexual abuse.
- To train to help victims overcome the trauma of childhood sexual abuse.
- To promote preventive measures in various ministries and institutions.
- To deepen knowledge of the Church and State Laws (such as POCSO Act).

CONSECRATED LIFE SEMINARS

It has been the tradition of ICLS to organize seminars on consecrated life, close on heels of the Day of Consecrated Life. Thus, ICLS has hosted 22 national seminars to this day, on various themes pertinent to consecrated life. In 2021, at the audience granted to Claretianum, Rome, at its 50th anniversary of foundation, Pope Francis called upon all Claretians to take their institutes of consecrated life to the peripheries. In response to the call, ICLS now organizes regional seminars at various parts of India as well. ICLS desires to organize the same in partnership with the regional CRIs. Any regional CRI interested is welcome to contact ICLS.

In 2027, the 23rd ICLS Seminar, together with the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Institute's inception, will be held on February 6–7, 2027, at the ICLS campus. The theme, the speakers, and other logistics will be announced in November 2026. The dates and venues of regional seminars will be announced once finalized.

INTENSIVE PREPARATORY FOR PERPETUAL PROFESSION (IPPP-in-Forge Key)

Duration	: 3 months (2027 January 3 - March 18).
Eligibility	: Open to candidates preparing for perpetual profession.
Medium of Instruction	: English
Fees	: See the "Fee Structure" on page 12
Last Date to Apply	: November 30, 2026
How to Apply	: See the Application Form on page 13 Or, via Google Form: https://forms.gle/1GUrrceJpz6NDUB48

What is "Forge Key?"

Forge refers to the comprehensive formative/renewal paradigm developed by Claretian missionaries, inspired by the charismatic formative experience of their founder, Saint Anthony Mary Claret (1807-1870). In a deeply mystical experience, he found himself being formed in the forge of the Heart of Mary, to be transformed into an arrow poised to be released to evangelize the world. Claretians have evolved the Forge as a comprehensive formative paradigm, in the spirit of Vita Consecrata, applicable to all consecrated men and women. The diagram below captures dynamics of the Forge Encounter tailor-made for the initial formation as well as for the ongoing deepening of one's religious consecration. The Forge Encounter unfolds in 0+3 phases, with the dynamics of each phase correlated to each person of the Trinity.

Outcome of the IPPP-in-Forge Key Experience

- A lived experience of the Trinitarian foundation of one's consecration, with deepening of intimacy with the Persons of the Trinity.
- Greater maturity in affective domain and growth in psycho-sexual and psycho-spiritual-integration, aimed at deepening of one's inner freedom to profess the evangelical counsels.
- Greater personal agency to live one's consecration with integrity and creativity.
- Substantial grounding in the theology of consecrated life.
- Foundation for joyful community living as witnesses of the Kin(g)dom.
- Skilling in discernment and various forms of prayer.
