"[Cinema]
has the capacity to promote personal growth,
to lead men and women to higher aesthetic and spiritual levels"
(St. Pope John Paul II).

WHY A RETREAT WITH MOVIES?

At its very best, the medium of cinema – the seventh art - is singularly capable of evoking deepest spiritual sensibilities of the human soul, making her confront truth in its beauty and terror, and leaving her transformed. ICLS offers you a unique and novel opportunity to do your annual spiritual exercises (retreat) meditating on the glimpses of truth, beauty, and goodness that some perennial classic films offer. Each day, the retreatants watch a select movie and reflect on its theological-spiritual insinuations in relation to their Christian and religious calling.
